Michael Loewke:

Thank you for being a panel member in our School Construction: Knowledge and Concepts for the "Educated Owner" Workshops on April 16 in Smithtown; April 22 in Albany, and April 24 in Buffalo.

Our members gained valuable information about arbitration, mediation, and litigation from your comments. You have good information and share it in an understandable way. Your comments fit in well in the panel dialogue and flow; many times strengthening the comments of the other panel members.

You and Dr. John Woods are good people to work with. I appreciated that you were current in sending your information and arrived at the workshops early. Our members appreciated that you shared information with them at lunch and after the program.

I look forward to seeing you in June at our Annual Conference.

Continued success.

Donna Clement
